1. Attached hereto are files on losses or shortages of funds at the [redacted] Station, USO, and the [redacted] USO.

25X1A6a

2. Section 1.4, paragraph c, of the Confidential Funds Regulations, issued 13 June 1949, establishes a new procedure for the investigation and disposition of any questions involving personal pecuniary liability or loss or shortage of government funds. These files are being forwarded, in accordance with said regulations.

3. It is not known what precise procedure will be followed in examining, investigating, and disposing of these cases. For this reason, all available supporting documents are attached, in order that they may be reviewed to see what additional information may be necessary or desirable. Upon determination of the precise procedures for the disposition of such cases, it is requested that this office be advised, for its future guidance, as to any actions or preliminary reports it should make.
